Everyone had to go to their own home town to be listed. So Joseph had to leave Nazareth in Galilee and go to Bethlehem in Judea. Long ago Bethlehem had been King David’s hometown, and Joseph went here because he was from David’s family. Mary traveled with him to Bethlehem and was soon going to have a baby. While they were there, she gave birth to her first-born son.

People: She wrapped him in cloths and laid him in a manger on a bed of hay, because there was no room for them in the inn.

Narrator: You will know who he is because you will find him dressed in cloths and lying on a bed of hay.” Suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of angels praising God and saying,

People: “The Lord’s Spirit has come to me, because he has chosen me to tell the good news to the poor. The Lord has sent me to announce freedom for prisoners, to give sight to the blind, and to free everyone who suffers, and to say, This is the year the Lord has chosen.”

Narrator: Jesus closed the book and sat down. Every one in the meeting place looked straight at Jesus. Then Jesus said to them, “What you have just heard me read has come true today.”

LESSON SEVEN
We Are Called To Live The Message
Ephesians 4:23-24, 5:1-2

Narrator: Be constantly renewed in the spirit of your mind—having a fresh mental and spiritual attitude; and put on the new nature created in God’s image, in true righteousness and holiness.

People: Therefore, be imitators of God—copy Him and follow His example—and walk in love, esteeming and delighting in one another, as Christ loves us.

Narrator:

Christmas is both a fact and a faith. It is a song out of the heart of God for a hungry world. It means much that we can hear it, despite fears and troubles, forever singing above the din of strife; and, hearing it, take up its strain in the busy world of today. At last it will be fulfilled that the world will fill up with persons of goodwill who keep step with God's music and live by his law, people who know that we are made for love, because God is love, and that love and joy must blend in the final note of the great world song.
