What if twenty steps
across a room
could change another person's forever?

In his newest book, Just Walk Across the Room, Pastor Bill Hybels paints a compelling picture for how a few steps of obedience really can touch eternity.

During these four weekends, we'll learn together how to approach our sin-scarred world with a relevant, appropriate message of truth—a message that is conveyed on the heels of a simple walk across a room.

All who are considering membership or would simply like to learn more about our church are encouraged to participate.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!!

Volunteers needed! We have a portable sign put out on Saturdays by volunteers and taken down by our church custodian on Monday mornings. Spotlight on Volunteers

You might wonder who is responsible for the great goodies in the kitchen between services each week. It's Lolo Eldridge and her husband of 30 years, Dick.

Lolo came to the United States in 1961 from Montevideo, Uruguay in South America as the wife of a diplomat. After being single for 7 years, she met Dick through a friend and the rest is history. They had 2 children and sadly lost a son. Lolo adores "her Lord" and her faith; love for her Heavenly Father got her through that very difficult time.

Lolo loves photography and takes it one step further by painting with oils over photographs. WOW is all that can be said for the finished product.

Her favorite things about Ponte Vedra United Methodist Church is Pastor Jeff, the people, and the comfortable, loving environment.

May God bless you, Lolo, and your sweet husband Dick for all you do for us. Thanks!

A Note From Pastor Jeff.

Most Sundays I want to go to church which is a good thing in my line of work. I look forward to worshiping. But sometimes... It was Wednesday, February 21, Ash Wednesday. I did not want to go to church that night. I had a message ready but it had been a long and stressful day. Plain and simple, I did not want to go back to church. Of course I went anyway. And I know what you're thinking: You have to go; you're the pastor! Yeah, but I don't have to like it.

Worship is a funny thing. You can worship God even when you don't feel like it. Worship is a matter of the will, not the emotions. I suspect that when you least feel like it is when you most need it. I have never regretted choosing to worship. I've always left glad that I'd come.

That Ash Wednesday I was surprised by joy. Not mere pleasure, mind you, but the experience of the transcendent, a glimpse of something more than what we get to see everyday. I had worshiped.

As we join God in the work of evangelism, I can't help but think that similar joy awaits us. We may feel the same about sharing faith as we do a trip to the dentist or attending church when we really don't feel like it. I'm thinking that we might just be surprised by joy. I'm willing to find out. Are you?
